It appears that the applicant has filed priority papers but has yet to properly claim foreign priority.

The applicant's information disclosure statement dated 9/5/2006 has been considered and a copy has been placed in the file. Patent no. 6,159,966 was crossed through because the patent has nothing to do with the present invention.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the second rail and second drive member and the second lift plate as recited in claim 5 and complementary toothed surfaces on the rail and drive means as recited in claim 9, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim 9 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 9, lines 1-3, it is not readily apparent to the Examiner what is meant by complementary toothed surfaces on the guide rail and drive means. Why does the guide rail have "toothed surfaces"? Does the applicant mean between the cable and pulley?

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 and 9-11 (claim 9 as best understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Russell (3,022,064). Russell (3,022,064) discloses a window regulator comprising a lift plate (74) attached to a bottom portion of a window pane, a guide rail (14) having a pulley (60) at one end of the guide rail (14) and a motor (28) and cable drum (44) pivotally mounted (20) to an opposite end of the guide rail (14), and a cable/belt drivingly connected between the pulley (60) and cable drum/motor.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

As best understood, claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Russell (3,022,064) in view of Shibata (6,115,966). All of the elements of the instant invention are discussed in detail above except providing a second lift plate, a second guide rail, and a second pulley. Shibata ('966) discloses a cable driven window regulator comprising two rails, a plurality of pulleys and a second lift plate (70). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide the window drive assembly of Russell (3,022,064) with a second rail and lift plate since a second guide rail and lift plate provides stability to the window pane when moved between an open and closed position.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Several patents have been cited which disclose cable drive assemblies similar to that of the applicant's invention.
